

---

Writing Retreats for PhD students - temporary Faculty initiative due to Covid-19

The three schools at Arts ('institutter') have allocated some extra funding so that PhD students enrolled at the Graduate School can apply for financial support for writing retreats.

Enrolled PhD students at Arts can apply for up to DKK 2500 per person to cover expenses for stays/transport in Denmark according to the rules and regulations of Aarhus University: <https://medarbejdere.au.dk/en/administration/finance/travel-booking-and-expense-reimbursement/>

Applications must be submitted to the Graduate School's PhD Administration by e-mailing the relevant PhD programme administrator:
Anders Gade Jensen, Marianne Hoffmeister, Minna Elo, Bodil Bjerring or Henriette Jaquet.

Contact details are available at <https://phd.arts.au.dk/about-us/contact/>

Application form (look under 'Extra Funding'):
<https://phd.arts.au.dk/rules-and-forms/formsandtemplates/>

Applications are processed on an ongoing basis, and applicants will receive a decision letter to use as documentation for financial settlements.

Please note that there is no set application deadline, but grants that are allocated by the Faculty must be settled by the end of the fiscal year 2021.

Graduate School, Arts

Date: 9 June 2021

Sender's CVR no.:
31119103

Page 1/2

---

Suggestions for writing retreats (you may also seek other alternatives):

Møllehuset:

<https://auff.au.dk/en/grants/mollehuset/>

Sandbjerg Estate:

<https://auff.au.dk/en/grants/support-for-the-conduct-of-seminars-and-group-meetings-at-sandbjerg-estate/>

---

Klitgaarden Refugium (website only in Danish)

<https://www.klitgaarden.dk/>